

The Federal Aviation Administration National Airspace System Architecture 5

FAAHome FAASiteMap DOT AskFAA FAASearch

Home < ServiceView

PDF >< comment > help

Home
SiteSearch

FAQ
Reference&Tutorial
Downloads
CommentStatus

VIEWS

NAS
Financial
Location
Mechanisms
Services

ServiceView

[\[Outline\]](#)

Service Groups Step 1
Service Groups are comprised of related Services.

Services Step 2
Services are the high-level activities, performed by the FAA for the aviation community, that contribute to the flow of aircraft throughout the NAS.

Capabilities Step 3
Capabilities are functions or related activities that enable or support the delivery of a service.

Operational Improvements Step 4
Operational Improvements represent the capability improvements gained from the repair, replacement, or introduction of mechanisms.

ServiceGroups

AirTrafficServices

AirportSystemsManagementService

Regulation,Licensing,and CertificationServices

SafetyServices

SecurityServices

jump

If you know the ID of the Service Hierarchy Element you are looking for, you can enter it here.

DataLastUpdatedOn: 06-Oct-2004
PageFormattingLastUpdatedOn: 06-Jul-2004

Questions about this page? Accessibility Privacy Policy

For further information, please contact:

DianaLiang202 -385-7254

processing time: 0.218 seconds